THE CITY IN BRIEF.

NEWS AND BUSINESS.

Thirty Lots Sold.
Abraham Jacoby reports the sale of thirty lots in the Redway tract, Forty-sixth and Delton streets, to L. E. Thompson of this city; price $11,000.

Wong Yen's Yen up.
Wong Yen was arrested at No. 908 Marchmont street yesterday afternoon for conducting a lottery business. He furnished $50 cash bail for his appearance today. Officer W. A. Strode broke into the place through a rear door.

Gold Medal Comes Here.
The Alfred Dolge Company of Dolgeville received notice yesterday from Frank Wiggins, at the Portland Exposition, that it has been awarded a gold medal for felt shoes. This is a distinct triumph for the great factory at Dolgeville.

Large Olive-street Sale.
Robert Hale and H. A. Baldwin have sold to a local syndicate, through A. E. Halsey, Nos. 63-64 and 66 South Olive street, for $40,700. The improvements consist of a two-story frame house and a cottage, renting for $70 a month. The lot is 70x125 feet.

Hole in Big Main.
Boys playing in a deep excavation for a gas main at Jackson and Vine streets knocked the cap off a big 18-inch pipe last night and an enormous quantity of gas escaped before workmen could repair the damage. The odor of the gas pervaded that entire section of the city.

Wouldn't Ride in "Hurricane."
Mrs. Annie Rathman of No. 822 West Third street was knocked down by a horse driven by Dr. Vaughan at Third and Hill streets yesterday afternoon. The Receiving Hospital ambulance was sent for her, but she refused to go to a hospital and she was sent to her home. Her injuries are severe.

Chiaffarelli Rehearsals.
Manfredo Chiaffarelli and his band began rehearsals yesterday, on Glendale's "Fedora" and "Andrea Chénier," which will be given by him, for the first time in America, on Sunday night in Chutes Theatre. An extensive new arrangement of Wagner's "Valhalla" will be given at the same time.

Rural Routes.
The rural mail routes out of Los Angeles collected 17,295 pieces of mail during the quarter ending September 30, and delivered 17,330. Rural routes No. 3 has been extended, and beginning October 18, it will take in the territory east of Compton avenue and south of Vermont avenue, along Long Beach avenue to the city limits.

Knocked Him Twenty Feet.
J. A. Simonds, an upholsterer employed in the shops of the Southern Pacific railway was struck by a switch engine at Naud Junction early yesterday morning and hurled twenty feet. He sustained a badly fractured back and a laceration on the head. He was sent to the Sisters Hospital. Two months ago Simonds' brother was killed in an accident at the new Laughlin building.

Houses and Lots Sell.
Although Broke report the following sales: J. E. Marsh sold to H. C. Hill a two-story frame residence, No. 2713 Brighton avenue, lot 5x143 feet; consideration $25,000. L. McMahon sold to Sarah Rabin two cottages, No. 229 and 231 West Sixteenth street, on a lot 5x125 feet, for $20,000. West Ninth Heights Company sold to C. L. Patton an unimproved lot on the east side of Normandie avenue, 280 feet south of Ninth street, 5x125 feet, for $1200.

Reached Her Destination.
Mrs. Apolonia Wright, the aged woman who dropped out of sight Saturday after her arrival in Los Angeles and for whom diligent search was made Sunday by the police and others whom her nephew had interested in the matter, has been found. Her relatives or has found them. A message was received by The Times last night from C. E. Latham of Murietta, a nephew of Mrs. Wright, announcing her arrival there. The message does not state where the old lady was while the search was being conducted.

For Federal Positions.
The United States Civil Service Commission will hold an examination for this city on the 18th inst. for the position of clerk and carrier in the Los Angeles Postoffice. The commission has experienced difficulty in obtaining a sufficient number of eligibles to supply the demands of the office; it urges qualified persons to apply to Frank C. Mulkey, local secretary, room 23, main postoffice, who can furnish application blanks and other information. Examinations are also announced for laboratory assistant, Bureau of Standards, salary $500, to hold office with title of assistant, and for Indian music, Bureau of Indian Affairs, salary $1000, to hold office with title of Indian music, and for Indian music, Bureau of Indian Affairs, salary $1000, to hold office with title of Indian music.

BREVITIES.
Times' "Liner" Advertisers—Important change in rate for Sunday classified advertisements. Commencing Sunday, October 1, 1933, and thereafter the rate for "Liners" will be 34 cents per word for each insertion; minimum charge, 25 cents, as at present. This slight advance is amply justified by the present Sunday circulation of the Times, which averages over 65,000 copies. (When the 1-cent per-word rate was established in 1928, the Times Sunday circulation was only 14,000 copies.) The "Liner" rate for the daily—1 cent per word—will stand as at present.

SHE FOUNDED A GOOD WORK.

Mother of King's Daughters is Soon Coming.

Meeting Called Tonight to Arrange Welcome.

First Circle Formed Here Many Years Ago.

Mrs. Margaret Bottomo, the founder of the order of King's Daughters, is coming to Los Angeles for a week's stay early next month, and will speak at the first meeting of the order on the first Sunday evening in November. The local branch of the King's Daughters is preparing to give the mother of the movement a cordial welcome, and to prepare for this will meet this evening in the parlors of the First Congregational Church.

It is now more than seventeen years since the first circle of King's Daughters was formed in Los Angeles, with the late Mrs. Eliza A. Otis as its president. The circle opened in one room and had three children to look after the first day. In three months the nursery had outgrown its quarters and moved into a cottage. Since then, it has moved four times, and now occupies a home of its own, containing twelve rooms, and has a list of forty children on its books. Little ones, from one year up to nine years of age, are cared for from 6:30 in the morning to the same hour at night. The institution is non-sectarian, no race or creed being debarred, the only requirement being that the children are of honest parentage, clean and obedient, and that they have a baptismal certificate. At noon they are given a good hot meal and a light supper at night. The mothers pay 10 cents a day for each child, three from the same family being received for 25 cents a day. If these hard-working mothers fall ill, or are out of employment, then their little ones are looked after free of charge until the mother is again earning wages. Of course, the income from this source does not cover the expense of keeping up the institution, and the good work has been helped on by contributions, and by membership fees, which last are not by any means limited to King's Daughters. Growing out of the needs of the nursery, the Children of the King's Daughters, a good deal of settlement work has sprung from it as well.

A concerted effort is about to be made to increase the membership of the King's Daughters to 2000, and during Mrs. Bottomo's visit here the matter will come prominently before the public. The nursery is being run from the pulpit of some of the leading churches, and active, associate and sustaining memberships will be asked for. In connection with the work among the children, and growing out of the employment of the women, the order has been successful in securing a number of good support. One band of King's Daughters give their services in teaching the children to sew and in giving them instruction in physical culture. A mission band has been formed among these little children, and it is worthy of notice that they have given, mostly in pennies, six dollars a year for the past two years to mission work in South Africa.

Once a month there is a social meeting for the mothers, and once a month a Sunday evening vespers service is held. A room on the second floor of the nursery has recently been set aside and dedicated "The Chamber of Peace." Its mission is to receive some poor mother who is convalescing from illness and to provide for her a quiet resting place during that period which is so trying between severe illness and the complete restoration to health. Just now the "Chamber of Peace" is about to receive a poor woman convalescing from a serious attack of typhoid fever. It has also sheltered a Syrian woman who found there a haven of peace when she left the County Hospital, after a severe illness. This room is being furnished by different King's Daughters, and others who are interested.

Rev. William Horace Day will preside over the meeting to be held this evening in preparation for the coming of Mrs. Bottomo, and the planning of her reception.

HONEST BOY SNUBBED.

Newspaper Makes Haste to Return Woman's Gold Given Him by Mistake and Isn't Thanked.

Does it pay to be honest?

Otto Hirsch, a newboy with a "beat" at First street and Broadway, would like to know.

A lady patron, evincing much haste, rushed up to the lad during the evening rush last night and purchased a newspaper, tendering in payment a $10 gold piece, which she took from her purse under the impression that it was a copper cent.

Youthful Otto discovered her error in a short time and immediately began a search for his feminine patron. After a chase which extended over five blocks he discovered her on Broadway and immediately informed the woman of her mistake.

She hurriedly took the coin from the lad, and opening her purse fished out a penny, which she gave him in payment for her purchase, and marched down the street with scant show of appreciation of the exhibition of honesty upon the part of diminutive Otto. "Now what do you think of that," said the lad.

AFTER HEALY IN "ATE" WARD.

Councilman's Constituents Hot on His Trail.

Jackson-street Track Deal Stirs Hornets' Nest.

Movement to Invoke Recall, Meeting Tonight.

There is blood on the moon and blood in the eyes of a number of Councilman Healy's constituents in "de bloody Ate" ward.

They are hot on Healy's trail. Some of the property owners are stirred up and they say they're going after his scalp with a big knife. These stirred-up people are interested in Jackson street.

If it were within their power, they would express their indignation by trying to oust eight of the nine members of the City Council, but inasmuch as they elected Healy, he is the only member against whom agitating they might do could be really effective.

For the purpose of setting in motion the machinery which will, they hope, result in throwing Healy out of office through the operation of the section of the city charter which provides for a recall, a mass meeting of citizens will be held this evening at Bethlehem Institutional Church, No. 562 North Vine street.

Property owners on Jackson street doubtless will tell those who attend this meeting that Councilman Healy has proven false to the trust they reposed in him when they elected him over Tom Savage, and in proof of their assertion they will point to the action which the City Council took yesterday in awarding to the Southern Pacific rights which the people had asked should be given to the Santa Fe; that along with seven other Councilmen Healy voted to favor the Expos despite the fact that he well knew what the wishes of his constituents are.

To the Jackson-street people the outcome of the contest they have been making for their own street is amazing. Last night in the eastern portions of the Eighth Ward harsh things were said about Healy and about the other Councilmen. Assertions were made which probably could not be proven in court. There were hints of "graff" and some open accusations, for which, however, no substantial basis has as yet been forthcoming. There was no mistaking the indignation of the people. Several men busied themselves going from house to house telling their neighbors of the mass meeting tonight, and asking that they attend and at least bear what will be said about Healy. A large crowd is in prospect.

The committee in charge of the meeting, so far as constituted, is composed of J. E. Bellus, Fred Marcotte and Otto Quant. They have arranged to have speakers, and today they will prepare the formal petition for the recall of Healy. It will be circulated for signatures tonight.

It must not be supposed that Councilman Healy has been wholly deserted by his friends. If his proposed attempt to secure his recall reaches the proportions which his opponents say, there will be one of the hottest political fights ever known in the ward in the city where every other voter is considered a member in the game. There is a brand known and recognized as "110-proof-aged-in-the-wood" Eighth Ward politics which the natives seem to know as instinctively as a fledgling knows the use of its wings. It is said that, long ago, a political battle more than anything else they can call to mind, certain of Councilman Healy's friends are rather encouraging the proposed recall movement. They indicate entire confidence in their ability to hold the proposition if it ever comes to a vote, and they welcome a test of strength.

The proposition is therefore considered excellent for the success of the recall petition, to the extent of its resounding in the calling of an election, and when that election is held, if ever, there will be "something doing" in "de Ate."

SHOCK OF ROBBERY KILLING DR. ORDWAY.

DR. W. W. ORDWAY is dying in the little house on East Twenty-ninth street which was robbed and set on fire so sensationally a month ago.

He has never rallied from the shock of missing his $600 in hoarded-up gold pieces and his satchel laden with $125,000 in U. S. bonds.

That terrible night of excitement when he dragged himself out of the house that was believed to be burning; the coming of the detectives; the bustle of the policemen, the reporters and photographers, the burning recriminations, the preliminary examination of the woman he accused was too much for a man of his age and feebleness.

His complaint seems to be a senile decay. He has been unable to stand long time and a victim of such other bodily ills as to require the constant attendance of a nurse. He has to be rubbed and turned and oiled.

He went home, ill, after the preliminary examination, and he has been ailing ever since. Once or twice he has been able to get out of bed, only to suffer a relapse and be worse than ever. Each succeeding time he went lower.

Yesterday afternoon he was reported as being very low; it is not believed that he will live.

His serious illness has won back his niece whom he brought out to California and from whom he had been estranged. Since he has been in so pathetic a condition, the girl has come back to live at his house.

She has taken the place of young Mrs. Jolly, the prosecuting witness against Mrs. Yager, as mistress of the old man's household. A thorough reconciliation has been effected and she is his dependance.

She is the only member of his family at his bedside.

Dr. Ordway has two or three sons in Iowa, however. In case of his death, his relatives will come in for a large estate of rather indefinite value.

Although for many years a resident of Los Angeles, he has always been claimed by the northwest Iowa—one of the few millionaires of that section.

His money was made in the first instance by taking up Iowa farms as government land, and later by foreclosing mortgages on farms given to him as security on loans.

It is not known that he has made a will.

Mrs. Jolly, who came out from Iowa as a young girl to nurse him, and who married him, is now a widow, and without any actual salary, but being treated as his own daughter, is expected to be the only one to inherit.

Dr. Ordway, although a rich man, has lived in style plain than plain: almost poverty-stricken.

This robbery he firmly believed to have been an attempt on his life. As his life had twice before been assailed by robbers, this last event weighed upon the old man with terrible foreboding.

PLOT TO RAILROAD TO ASYLUM, THIS?

MRS. ELIZA FLICK, proprietress of a rooming-house at No. 318½ South Spring street for three months ago recently preferred charges of assault against Dr. L. T. Holland, former coroner, was taken to the insane ward at the County Hospital yesterday afternoon.

Mrs. Flick, who is 60 years of age, vehemently declared that she is perfectly sane, and that a plot to prevent her testifying against Dr. Holland at his trial in Police Court Wednesday was the inception of the insanity charges.

The woman further declared that persons who have previously claimed ownership in her rooming-house are also implicated in a scheme to defraud her out of funds which should rightly accrue to her as owner of the place.

Dr. Holland avers that he has settled the bill for rent, amounting to $50, but acknowledges the money was not paid to Mrs. Flick. He asserts that another woman, who maintains an interest in the place, according to his story, collected the money from him.

According to the version of the affair given at the house last night by a roomer, Mrs. Flick is a much-persecuted woman. She recently obtained an interest in the place with the understanding that she was to become sole owner. Her friends declare she was the victim of a smooth real estate agent and that the bill of sale which followed the closing of the deal was made out jointly to Mrs. Flick and another woman.

Several days ago Mrs. Flick visited the office of Dr. Holland and demanded the payment of a $50 bill. It is averred that during the interview between the two, Holland used force in ejecting the woman from his office. A phrenologist—Stoner by name—and his wife are now in charge of the rooming-house, and the latter stated last night that Mrs. Flick exhibited marks on her person, said to have been inflicted during her encounter over the rental.

"I have never seen any indication of insanity about Mrs. Flick," said Stoner. "I have paid considerable attention to her, as myself and wife have assisted to some extent in the management of the house since its purchase by Mrs. Flick. She is a sane, sensible woman, and she is by no means insane. I am convinced that there is considerable behind this whole plot to railroad this woman into an asylum."

Without the testimony of Mrs. Flick in Police Court tomorrow, the case against Dr. Holland will fall flat. Others who claim to have witnessed the assault are ready to testify, but the arrest of the complaining witness just at this time on a charge of insanity appeals to her friends as peculiar.

J. T. Goding preferred the charges upon which the woman's arrest was based. All of the persons interested in the case are said to have financial connection with the rooming-house.

THE PUBLIC SERVICE.

SUMMARY OF THE DAY.

Yesterday the City Council granted the Southern Pacific Railroad right to lay spur tracks on Jackson street, despite bitter opposition by property owners. They appealed to the Mayor and he will give them a hearing Monday morning.

The City Attorney has been requested by the City Council to investigate the right of the city to take charge of street railways on South Park avenue affected by the Superior Court's recent decision in favor of the municipality.

The arrest by an El Monte constable of a Los Angeles horse dealer brought to light the operations of a dangerous gang of horse thieves. Joe Martinez, a desperate ex-convict, who served a term for murder, is alleged to be the leader of the gang. He also is in jail.

In the United States Court yesterday Orlando K. Fitzsimmons was sentenced to serve six months in the County Jail for using the mails in his crooked lottery business.

AT THE CITY HALL.

STREET GIVEN TO THE ESPEE.

CITY COUNCIL TURNS DOWN THE MAJORITY PETITION.

Jackson-street Property Owners' Wishes Overridden by City's Representatives, and They Will Appeal to the Mayor—Dramatic Scenes in the Council Chamber.

"Gentlemen, I too, have been a member of the Los Angeles City Council, and when I stood with my right hand uplifted and took my oath to do my duty honestly, fearlessly, and to the best of my ability, I said, 'So help me, God.' I didn't say, 'So help me, Southern Pacific!'"

This was the dramatic climax of the impassioned speech which M. T. Collins made before the City Council yesterday afternoon, while contending for the right of the property-owners of Jackson street to say who should have the privilege of laying spur tracks on that thoroughfare.

The Southern Pacific was given the right.

It was simply a case of the Jackson-street folk having their noses held by the City Council and having the "majority" power of the council giving the right to the Southern Pacific, despite the remarkable protests of the owners of the property fronting on the street.

On lines similar to the fight before the Board of Public Works last week was the contest of the city council. The council wanted the right of way; the property owners wanted it to have this privilege. Out of the fight, the city council was directly affected, the Jackson-street people came up with a petition signed by owners of 250 feet of frontage on the street, representing three property owners.

On the street, the Jackson-street people had asked that they be given the right to open the street at their own expense, and they had an understanding with Santa Fe that this was done the road would lay the spur tracks, if given the right by the City Council. The petitioners were present in person, both before the Board of Public Works and the City Council.

On the other hand, the Jackson-street people had asked that they be given the right to open the street at their own expense, and they had an understanding with Santa Fe that this was done the road would lay the spur tracks, if given the right by the City Council. The petitioners were present in person, both before the Board of Public Works and the City Council.

Strong speeches were made by Will A. Harris and M. T. Collins, setting forth the desires of the property owners, on grounds which have been reported fully heretofore in The Times. They were of no avail. Then the petitioners asked the council to grant the right to the Santa Fe, as they declared if the Santa Fe was not granted the privilege, they did not want to play the game.

The increase of valuations due to the securing of the street, and the rights on Commercial and Banning streets was set forth, and the petitioners asked the council to grant the right to the Santa Fe, as they declared if the Santa Fe was not granted the privilege, they did not want to play the game.

Then the bit of comedy in the dramatic scene came to the surface. It seems the Southern Pacific was asking for rights on two sections of Jackson street, and on this was no protest, as it was in the company's own territory. The other section referred to the easterly end of the street.

When the clerk proceeded to read the second section of the report of the Board of Public Works, it was discovered that the Jackson-street people had made their fight and sprung all their arguments on the wrong section of the street.

Houston, spook Councilman, wanted to have it done all over again. You can always count on the Sixth Ward representative to play the monkey. He sent out posthaste for Lawyer Harris to come back and make his speech all over again on the last section of the report. Harris came back, breathless, hoping the Councilmen had had a change of heart, a conversion at 10 o'clock. He was disappointed, last evening, that he had given the protestants against the Southern Pacific re-son to believe he would veto the ordinance, but, in case he takes this step, the Council would doubtless pass it over his veto, if the same spirit possesses it which prevailed yesterday.

COUNCIL'S WORK.

YESTERDAY'S MINOR ACTIONS.

Yesterday the City Council granted to W. T. Truett, member of the Library Board, a thirty-day's leave of absence. Plumbing Inspector A. A. Bennett was granted leave of absence for two weeks.

The Council reconsidered its action on the tunnel ordinance, which was vetoed by the Mayor because of its conflicting provisions.

All bills were rejected on the proposed sewerage of Normandie avenue and Santa Barbara street. This is a part of the district over undertaken by the city.

The Council repealed the ordinance prohibiting the operation of merry-go-rounds, and the steam pianos may again furnish sweet music.

A resolution was passed through the request of Councilman Healy asking the Civil Service Commission to give preference to old employees in the employment of the city as long as they are proficient, and declaring that old age will not be a bar to employment or appointment to positions. This is a direct slap at the Municipal League, which has been brought up by the subject and intimated that the city service was being made an asylum of decrepit old men.

The Council adopted the report of the City Engineer, providing for the following street improvements:

MUNICIPAL OWNERSHIP.
SPOOK RAISES THE QUESTION.
At yesterday's meeting of the City Council Houston presented a resolution: "That the Mayor be requested to take possession of certain street-car tracks running south from Thirteenth street on South Park avenue, a recent decision by the Superior Court of this county having declared such tracks to have been laid without any valid permit or franchise, and that the City Attorney be empowered to take such legal steps as may be necessary to protect the rights of the city in the premises; further, that a copy of this action be sent forthwith to the office of the Mayor."

The council asked for the City Attorney, and his advice was sought on the question as to whether the city has the right to own and operate street-car tracks. Finally, the whole subject was referred to the City Attorney for a report.

Councilman Smith declared that the matter should be carefully investigated, as he believed the decision of the court would affect the trackage from the Plaza to Fifth street, as well as the South Park-avenue trackage.

This is the case in which the Los Angeles Railway Company, which has been laying its tracks on what was then known as Stanley avenue. The city sent out a squad of men to remove the tracks, but the company sought an injunction. This injunction has now been dissolved, and the city is free to lay its tracks on the street.

On lines similar to the fight before the Board of Public Works last week was the contest of the city council. The council wanted the right of way; the property owners wanted it to have this privilege. The petitioners were present in person, both before the Board of Public Works and the City Council.

Strong speeches were made by Will A. Harris and M. T. Collins, setting forth the desires of the property owners, on grounds which have been reported fully heretofore in The Times. They were of no avail. Then the petitioners asked the council to grant the right to the Santa Fe, as they declared if the Santa Fe was not granted the privilege, they did not want to play the game.

The increase of valuations due to the securing of the street, and the rights on Commercial and Banning streets was set forth, and the petitioners asked the council to grant the right to the Santa Fe, as they declared if the Santa Fe was not granted the privilege, they did not want to play the game.

Then the bit of comedy in the dramatic scene came to the surface. It seems the Southern Pacific was asking for rights on two sections of Jackson street, and on this was no protest, as it was in the company's own territory. The other section referred to the easterly end of the street.

When the clerk proceeded to read the second section of the report of the Board of Public Works, it was discovered that the Jackson-street people had made their fight and sprung all their arguments on the wrong section of the street.

Houston, spook Councilman, wanted to have it done all over again. You can always count on the Sixth Ward representative to play the monkey. He sent out posthaste for Lawyer Harris to come back and make his speech all over again on the last section of the report. Harris came back, breathless, hoping the Councilmen had had a change of heart, a conversion at 10 o'clock. He was disappointed, last evening, that he had given the protestants against the Southern Pacific re-

HOUSE WAS BURNED.
Mrs. Grace Reed Thorn, and her husband, Matthew W. The company is resisting payment and the suit was set for trial yesterday before Judge Wilbur.

On August 5 Mrs. Thorn took out a policy of insurance upon which she paid $1000. The house was burned out August 26. The company is resisting payment and the suit was set for trial yesterday before Judge Wilbur.

the time, and when she returned she stated that she found her husband very ill at the house of a neighbor and her home a ruin. A few insignificant articles were salvaged, but as compared with the total loss were of little consequence. It is claimed that the property was worth $1500 and the actual loss was $1500, the full amount of the insurance being demanded.

HELD ON BAIL.

CITY LIMITS CLUB BROKE.

The brick building erected for the accommodation of the City Limits Club is open for a new tenant, for yesterday the principals in the game that was raided by Deputy District Attorney Fleming and Constable De la Monte were held in $200 bail to appear on Wednesday and plead.

C. C. Tilley and A. M. Ferguson were each held in $200, George Schmitt and C. W. Dillon were held in $200 each to appear at the same time. They were charged with playing stud-poker and tried to make it appear as if engaged in an innocent game of seven-up, but they were caught by the police.

A resolution was passed through the request of Councilman Healy asking the Civil Service Commission to give preference to old employees in the employment of the city as long as they are proficient, and declaring that old age will not be a bar to employment or appointment to positions. This is a direct slap at the Municipal League, which has been brought up by the subject and intimated that the city service was being made an asylum of decrepit old men.

The Council adopted the report of the City Engineer, providing for the following street improvements:

SPOOK RAISES THE QUESTION.
At yesterday's meeting of the City Council Houston presented a resolution: "That the Mayor be requested to take possession of certain street-car tracks running south from Thirteenth street on South Park avenue, a recent decision by the Superior Court of this county having declared such tracks to have been laid without any valid permit or franchise, and that the City Attorney be empowered to take such legal steps as may be necessary to protect the rights of the city in the premises; further, that a copy of this action be sent forthwith to the office of the Mayor."

The council asked for the City Attorney, and his advice was sought on the question as to whether the city has the right to own and operate street-car tracks. Finally, the whole subject was referred to the City Attorney for a report.

Councilman Smith declared that the matter should be carefully investigated, as he believed the decision of the court would affect the trackage from the Plaza to Fifth street, as well as the South Park-avenue trackage.

This is the case in which the Los Angeles Railway Company, which has been laying its tracks on what was then known as Stanley avenue. The city sent out a squad of men to remove the tracks, but the company sought an injunction. This injunction has now been dissolved, and the city is free to lay its tracks on the street.

On lines similar to the fight before the Board of Public Works last week was the contest of the city council. The council wanted the right of way; the property owners wanted it to have this privilege. Out of the fight, the city council was directly affected, the Jackson-street people came up with a petition signed by owners of 250 feet of frontage on the street, representing three property owners.

On the street, the Jackson-street people had asked that they be given the right to open the street at their own expense, and they had an understanding with Santa Fe that this was done the road would lay the spur tracks, if given the right by the City Council. WANTS HER INHERITANCE.
Mrs. Birdie A. Babcock is suing her mother, Mrs. E. H. Andrews, for what she says is her share of the estate bequeathed to her by her father. She sets its value at $10,000 and Judge Bordwell is endeavoring to straighten out a serious family tangle. Mrs. Babcock's mother did not like her daughter, and she thought little of her. She died yesterday.

MRS. DAVIS REVERSES "STAIRWAY SCENE."

THERE was a one-act performance of "Sapho" at the Police Station yesterday afternoon with Mrs. Davis, the alleged diamond thief, in the chief feminine role.

While the approved version of the play was not strictly adhered to, Officer Tom Murray is convinced that Mrs. Davis appeared as a woman more successful behind the footlights than in her chosen profession of diamond thieving.

Murray knows, because he carried the woman from the courtroom of Justice Rose, on the third story, back to her cell, the order of the court being that she be released on bail.

Mrs. Davis appeared at 3 o'clock with her lawyer, Frank R. Willis. She was apparently enjoying the best of health, three things at once, which she had done credit to a maiden of sixteen summers, facing the court and with that amount of time back to Cleveland.

The complaints bore the signatures of Lauretta Flier, No. 2344 North Grace avenue, Ebel Culver, No. 1374 South Figueroa street, and E. M. Shiland, No. 124 West First street. All of the complainants have already identified jewelry stolen from their homes.

After bail was fixed, Mrs. Davis immediately developed another attack of "heart failure," such as she suffered in her cell Sunday night. Court officers hurriedly departed for water, and the woman clutched madly at the coats of the officers who stood by her.

She was carried and moaned by turns, but during it all never evinced the slightest change in color, and when she was delivered by the officers, she exclaimed more strength in resisting the attempts of the officers to take her to the prison than she showed when on the verge of collapse from heart failure.

In her cell officers with Mrs. Davis in the center had reached the stairway leading to the first floor when the woman suddenly toppled over in the arms of Officer Murray and clerks, feigned a fainting spell. So realistic was her work that any but the most hardened of officers would have been deceived.

Developments in the case have progressed rapidly since the past few days. Mrs. Davis's record in San Francisco was investigated, and there it is learned that she operated in practically the same manner, as in Los Angeles.

It is not yet made public, as after announcing it he took the document back into his office for some further alterations.

Arraignment.
The new additional room for the accommodation of city taxpayers, particularly noticeable with the rush now in progress at the city tax collector's office. For the first eleven days of the month the collections to the amount of $21,500.72 have been received. During a similar period last year the collections totaled $22,563.56.

A Bankrupt.
Joseph P. Gase, farmer of Olander, Fresno county, filed a petition in bankruptcy yesterday with the United States clerk's office. Gase gives his debts at $238.58; his assets as nothing.

Patent Case.
The patent infringement case of William Richards versus C. R. Knox and others was decided yesterday in favor of the complainant.

POLICE COURT.
SUIT PRESSED WITH THREATS?
Because she would not consent to marry him, it is alleged, Herman Phillips threatened to kill Miss Florence Bain in front of Christ Church Sunday night, according to a complaint filed against him by the young woman yesterday afternoon. He was arraigned before Justice Rose and will furnish $1000 bail for his appearance for examination tomorrow afternoon. It is charged that Phillips accosted Miss Bain as she was leaving the church with another man, and hurled his threats at her, declaring she must marry him within a few hours or he would take her life.

Too Speedy.
Frank Allison, J. S. Pancoast and F. F. Auten paid fines in Police Court yesterday for violating the speed ordinance. Allison was fined $5.00, Pancoast $5.00 and Auten $5.00. They were all fined $5.00 each, and Auten deposited $25 with Justice Rose.

Warrants for Theater Managers.
Warrants for the arrest of A. J. Morgans and A. M. Cox managers of the Broadway Theater, A. M. Cox manager of the Casino; Henry Hoch, the Chutes; H. W. Oviatt, the Lyric, and others, were issued yesterday by Justice Rose, after a hearing yesterday afternoon. J. J. Backus, City Superintendent of Buildings, is Klamatha, the favorite, carrying 104 pounds, equaled the world's record for a mile, circular, held by Dick Wolfe, by covering the distance in 1:13 3-4. FIVE-YEAR "BIT" FOR BURGLARY.

SAN BERNARDINO MAN IS SENTENCED FOR THEFTING.

Relatives in Mexico Will Fight the Case to the End—Los Angeles Prisoner, Who Once Falsely Claimed to be a Local Attorney, Pleads Guilty to a Serious Charge.

SAN BERNARDINO, Oct. 9.—Felix Fernandez, who last week was convicted of burglary in the first degree, having been detected in the rooms of Mrs. Dominguez, was sentenced by Judge P. F. Oster to serve five years in Prison. His attorney, F. A. Prescott, argued a motion for a new trial, based on the fact that the jurors had read the daily papers which were prejudicial to the prisoner, and an affidavit of Juror W. L. Holcomb supported the motion, claiming the juror said that he had been in no way influenced by what he read.

This is not the last of the case, as Attorney Prescott will take an appeal to the Supreme Court, the relatives of the accused, some of whom are prominent in Mexico, having also been notified of the case to the end. Fernandez was sentenced to the State Prison, where he will be confined for five years.

A stay of execution will be asked pending the outcome of the appeal, and an effort will be made to secure the release of the accused until that time.

SUCCEEDS PLEASING GUILTY.

Jim Hughes, of Los Angeles, charged with criminal association with a fifteen-year-old Mexican girl, Kate Moreno, pleaded guilty before Superior Court Judge E. F. Blodgett this evening, and will be sentenced tomorrow.

Hughes was a prisoner in the County Jail when he met the girl, serving a term for swindling Mrs. Mary E. Ford, a wealthy woman of Los Angeles. The girl's father was also a prisoner, charged with burglary, and she and her mother paid daily visits to him.

Hughes admitted he had been convicted of burglary at Los Angeles, but he was pardoned after sentence.

REDLANDS.

REDLANDS, Oct. 9.—Covered from end to foot with blazing kerosene, the suit of his attempt to hasten a fire in a stove at his home, George H. Costello, a furniture dealer, received severe burns this morning. A condition is serious.

When the wood in the stove did not burn as quickly as he wished, Costello obtained a gallon can of kerosene and poured some of the oil on the fire, which was on the stove.

The fire and waste oil ignited and an instant later there was an explosion that blew the building, while the contents of the can enveloped Costello in a cloud of flame.

Running into the street, Costello first attempted to get under a hydrant to escape the flames falling in this manner, he dashed to a flower bed and rolled the dirt and greenery, his wife later trying to help him, but he was wrapped around the stove.

His clothing was burned from his body, and he was badly burned, but the amount of damage to his property was not great.

BRISK GRASS FIRE. TARIO, Oct. 9.—Fire started this morning in the hedge surrounding the Lake right of way at Laurel avenue and State street, and for a time it was as if the several barns and outbuildings which confront the alley were on fire. RIVERSIDE, Oct. 9.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Fire started either by a cigarette stump or badly insulated wires, was discovered in the Evans Block almost directly over the offices of the Citizens Bank tonight at 10:55. Had it not been for the strenuous work of Policeman E. J. Barrett, great loss might have resulted. For several minutes, until the hose was brought to the scene of action, he fought the flames in the offices of the Evans Block with chemical extinguishers. He managed to keep the fire from eating through the roof and back into the partitions of the building. Everything inflammable in one room was consumed, and the other badly damaged. The damage will not exceed $1000, fully covered by insurance.

Charles Beard, the half-breed Indian accused of criminal assault, failed to appear in the Superior Court for trial this morning and the judge ordered him declared forfeited, the money being paid by his bondsmen, Russell Read and W. O. Benstead. Shortly before the bondsmen paid the money, there was filed with the Court Recorder a deed from Mrs. Louise Penrose, mother of the girl who was the victim of the assault, conveying to her the woman's interest in the estate of her late husband, an effort to be made by the woman's family to have the deed set aside. Sheriff Colburn has been instructed to use every effort to effect the capture of the fugitive.

What Joy They Bring To Every Home

as with joyous hearts and smiling faces they romp and play—when in health—and how conducive to health the games in which they indulge, the outdoor life they enjoy, the cleanly, regular habits they should be taught to form and the wholesome diet of which they should partake. How tenderly their health should be preserved, not by constant medication, but by careful avoidance of every medicine of an injurious or objectionable nature and if at any time a remedial agent is required, to assist nature, only those of known excellence should be used; remedies which are pure and wholesome and truly beneficial in effect, like the pleasant laxative remedy, Syrup of Figs, manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co. Syrup of Figs has come into general favor in many millions of well informed families, whose estimate of its quality and excellence is based upon personal knowledge and use.

Syrup of Figs has also met with the approval of physicians generally, because they know it is wholesome, simple and gentle in its action. We inform all reputable physicians as to the medicinal principles of Syrup of Figs, obtained, by an original method, from certain plants known to them to act most beneficially and presented in an agreeable syrup in which the wholesome California blue figs are used to promote the pleasant taste; therefore it is not a secret remedy and hence we are free to refer to all well informed physicians, who do not approve of patent medicines and never favor indiscriminate self-medication.

Please to remember and teach your children also that the genuine Syrup of Figs always has the full name of the Company—California Fig Syrup Co.—plainly printed on the front of every package and that it is for sale in bottles of one size only. If any dealer offers any other than the regular Fifty cent size, or having printed thereon the name of any other company, do not accept it. If you fail to get the genuine you will not get its beneficial effects. Every family should always have a bottle on hand, as it is equally beneficial for the parents and the children, whenever a laxative remedy is required.

Miss Miller is said to be a most charming and cultivated woman, and her local chapter are anticipating much pleasure from her visit. All the chapters of the D.A.R. in Southern California are invited to the affair and also the visiting daughters.

The annual meeting of Eschscholtzia Chapter is to be held on Wednesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at the home of Mrs. J. C. McCoy in Barnard Park, at which time the election of officers for the ensuing year will be held.

The latter are descendants of the old Gov. Posner, who ruled Sonora for twenty years.

Both families were living with Mrs. F. H. Howard, No. 1812 South Olive street, while in this city, and seemed to be very favorably impressed with the City of the Angels and its vicinity.

PLAYHOUSES AND PLAYERS.

It is safe to assert that with the exception of George Barnum, no actor at present in Southern California theatrical work has the widely extended reputation of Thomas Oberle. This man is a playmaker on the continents, an artist of unusual force and creative power, and finally, at today's season, just an unfortunate fellow being whose career and very life are threatened by the insidious ravages of disease.

As announced frequently in these columns, he will be tendered a benefit at the Belasco, in his portrayal of a fellow miner. Still another small miniature is the French boatman of H. J. Ginn.

The back drop, representing a Klondike mountain, laden with a dual load of pine and snow, with the blue sky in the far distance, is the best piece of scenic painting at the Burbank theater in a year.

That the writer of the "best selling books" is not the maker of the most successful plays, is very evident in the version of "Audrey," which the Belasco people started for week's run last night. Indeed, it is a drama, and the result is a nondescript thing of shreds and patches that drags and sags and doesn't "hold together."

Yet the Belasco players have made something out of "Audrey," somehow, for the first proof of their ability and ability they deserve much more than passing praise. Howard Scott, indeed, but in the last two she is a trifle of his rather vociferous elocution but perhaps this is suggesting the impossible. We think not, though, for Miss Lawton has attained to a subdued enunciation which is perfectly distinct and which is at the same time an exquisite joy to the ear.

In the part of Audrey, Miss Lawton gives pleasure of an exalted order, for she is very beautiful. She does not make a great deal of the part in the first four tableaux (why tableaux, by the way?) but in the last two she really superb. Nothing could be finer or truer than the scene with Hugon in Bruton Church. There is poignant pathos, too, when she flings herself, alone, heart-broken and desolate, at the foot of the altar.

The scene painters of the Belasco have outdone themselves in "Audrey," their aids to the play are harmonious and beautiful.

GRAND OPERAHOUSE: As stated in yesterday's Times, the pieces of Charles A. Taylor appeal strictly for popular favor—not for high art. Accordingly, "Escaped From the Harlem," though it may be a thriller and a winner of the gallery, will probably not be seen in high-class repertoire very soon.

It is the old story of the abducted girl falling into evil hands. The one under present consideration becomes the unwelcome guest of an evil monster, who shuts her up in his harem for apparent keeps, whence she is rescued brilliantly by a United States marine officer and his clownish attendant.

The lady finally escapes on the property elephant—represented on the bills as galloping horse-fashion across a wide plain. This pachyderm is a very interesting specimen, and has a walk that is almost human. At times it appears as though its hind legs were attempting to waylay from the front ones—but the catastrophe was averted.

OPHEUS: Owing to a lack of time and space, the Opheus notice, which appears regularly in the Tuesday morning columns, will appear this week on Wednesday morning.

Dr. T. FELIX GOURAUD'S ORIENTAL CREAM OR MAGICAL BEAUTIFIER

Remember, Tom, Douglas, that this cream is the best of its kind, and that it is the only one that will give you a skin of beauty. It is the only one that will give you a skin of beauty. It is the only one that will give you a skin of beauty.

Desmond plays the miner, Blanche Hall the new woman, and Jane Kelton the Indian girl.

In Desmond's work there is much of sincerity, just there is in Blanche Hall's. Miss Kelton's Indian is a realistic imitation, with a civilized and acquired accent. In make-up and action, however, she keeps to the spirit of the original. A far better Indian woman is Phoebe Allister, who gets into her throat the real guttural monotonous of the savage, that constant sounding of
